

Northampton Chronicle and Echo - Monday 08 November 1915

Volunteer's Death

The death took place on Saturday of Sergeant William Thomas Hawkes, one of and best known members of the Wellingborough Company of Volunteers & The deceased gentleman, who was 53 years of age and was formerly in the Grenadier Guards and served in the Egyptian campaign When he came back to Wellingborough he re-joined the Volunteers and at the outbreak of the present war he was one of the first members the new National Reserve.